The album begins with “Be A Seeker, Believer,” immediately establishing a magical atmosphere. The sound reflects influences of renowned artists like Massive Attack, Björk, and Enya. Sienná’s music transcends mere auditory experience, resembling an ancient ritual. The combination of ethereal tones and rhythmic elements invites listeners into a different realm.

Next is “Your Facts My Facts,” which shifts the momentum with a more urgent rhythm. The infectious beats encourage movement and expression. The production is meticulous, with sound elements playing across the stereo field. The male voice asserts itself through commanding yet concise phrases, creating an almost hypnotic effect. This avant-garde piece shines through its beautiful bass line, demonstrating her innovative approach to music.

The title track, “EMA,” follows. This piece is cinematic and atmospheric, rich with intensity and uniqueness. It feels suspended in an illusion, drawing listeners into its depths. Every note seems carefully placed, creating a sense of wonder and intrigue. The arrangement of sounds cultivates a space that feels personal and expansive.

EMA – SOUND AND ATMOSPHERE

“Aenaria” brings a refreshing touch of traditional Japanese music. The nuances are arranged in a way that feels like a film score, transporting audiences to serene landscapes. Sienná successfully bridges cultural elements, reflecting her diverse influences while retaining her distinct style.

“The Majestic” provides a mysterious vibe. The piano notes are particularly striking, triggering visions in the listener’s mind. The arrangement creates an atmosphere intimate enough to draw someone into a dream. Its uniqueness sets it apart from the rest of the album, as it seemingly exists in its own liminal space.

Closing the album is “From Here To Where You Are.” This track features the sound of droplets, immersing listeners in a cave-like environment. With eyes closed, one can visualize an exploratory journey. It envelops you, making you feel as if you are floating through an uncharted territory. The experience is thoughtful and reflective, ending the album on a note of curiosity.

EMA – PERFORMANCE AND PRODUCTION

Sienná’s work is one of incredible refinement, a sublime exploration of sound. Throughout the album, the artistry shines through in each carefully crafted piece. This collection invites listeners on a profound auditory journey, merging various elements into a cohesive whole. Sienná’s unique approach to music deserves recognition and appreciation.

“EMA” showcases an artist who is unafraid to experiment and innovate. Sienná creates a space where musical boundaries blur, and listeners are encouraged to explore the intricacies of sound. The album’s cumulative effect is one of deep engagement, catering to emotional and intellectual sensibilities. It is a remarkable offering that speaks to the soul, urging listeners to embrace the beauty of well-crafted music.
